Attributes

Each attribute starts at a base of 4 at level 1, and an additional 5 points are unallocated. Attributes can go as low as 1 and as high as possible. 2 attribute points are gained during a level up.

Constitution CON - Vitality, resistance, and inspirational presence

Willpower WIL - Mental resolve and intimidation

Dexterity DEX - Deft reflexes, movement speed, and cleverness

Perception PER - Keen awareness and accuracy

Intellect INT - Rationality and resourcefulness

Dependent Stats

These are a character's primary combat stats, and are determined by the character's attributes.

Vitality base 20 at 4 CON | 1 CON = 4 Vitality
More vitative characters can take more direct damage to their body before death sinks in.

Resolve base 20 at 4 WIL | 1 WIL = 4 Resolve
Resolute characters have very strong minds, and they can push themselves to keep going, even in the face of death.

Accuracy base 4 at 4 PER | 1 PER = 1 Accuracy
Accurate characters are better at hitting enemies when they attack. The more accurate a character is, the more damage they will inflict with each attack.

Reflex base 4 at 4 DEX | 1 DEX = 1 Reflex
Reflex increases a character's ability to evade taking vital damage. Higher reflex scores result in less damage taken from attacks.

Movement base 4 at 4 DEX | 1 DEX = 1 Movement
Mobile characters can move further, and move before other, less mobile characters.

Resourcefulness base 4 at 4 INT | 1 INT = 1 Resourcefulness
Resourceful characters know how to get the most out of everything, making status effects that they inflict harder to resist and having faster armor regeneration.

Resistance base 8 at 4 CON | 1 CON = 2 Resistance
A character's resistance helps them to fight against negative status effects.

Situational Stats

These stats are direct counterparts to the character's attributes, and all serve mainly conversational roles, unlocking new options in conversations.

Inspiration base 4 at 4 CON | 1 CON = 1 Inspiration
Inspirational characters can convey an uplifting presence and are great at motivating and encouraging others.

Intimidationbase 4 at 4 WIL | 1 WIL = 1 Intimidation
Intimidating characters may exhibit a frightening presence, making them fearful in a fight, and coercive in conversation.

Cleverness base 4 at 4 DEX | 1 DEX = 1 Cleverness
Clever characters think on their feet, easily able to bullshit their way through situations, even if it leads to some complications down the road.

Awareness base 4 at 4 PER | 1 PER = 1 Awareness
Aware characters are very mindful of those around them, making them less susceptible to flanking attacks as well as deception and dishonesty.

Rationality base 4 at 4 INT | 1 INT = 1 Rationality
Rational characters are generally reasonable and logical, and excel at stringing together coherent and well thought-out arguments.
